EARTH EVADES HALLEY COMET'S TAIL AND SIDE SWIPE DOES NOT FALL

STILL SEE TAIL TO EAST OF EARTH

Astronomers Surprised at what Appears to Be Error in Calculations of the Scientists

Astronomer on Pacific Finds by Photographs that There Is No Solid Substance in it

ST. LOUIS, Mo., May 19.—Several parties left Belleville, Ill., today to search for the meteor reported to have fallen two miles from there at 8:45 last night. The passengers and crew of an interurban car arriving here reported that a meteor of great size fell in a field near Belleville. It appeared to be a great ball of fire, the witnesses said, and after striking the ground seemed to bound upward several feet and spread into a shower of flame.

WILLIAMS BAY, Wis., May 19.—Halley's comet may have lost part of its tail, perhaps all of it. At all events Prof. E. B. Frost, director of the Yerkes observatory, today says the earth did not pass through the tail last night. For the tail of the comet, which was expected to sweep over the earth while the comet was crossing the orbit, is still in the eastern sky where it showed from 10:38 p. m. to 2:30 a. m.

The astronomers at the Yerkes Observatory cannot explain the mystery and confess ignorance of the cause.

This appearance of the tail of the comet to the east of the earth after it should be to the west of our planet by all calculations made concerning it mean one of three possibilities, according to Prof. O. Frost. These three are:

1.—The curvature of the comet's tail has grown so great that the tail has been switched around to an amazing degree and still remains to the east.

2.—The comet may have ceased its tail making activity, as was the case with Biela's comet of 1903 and gone into the western sky, leaving its tail behind it.

3.—All calculations may be wrong and the comet has not yet passed us.

NEW YORK, May 19.—Extra! Extra! It was all in vain and will have to be done over again. Mother Earth fell down on the job and didn't go through the comet's tail last night. If she goes through at all, which is doubtful, it will be tonight, tomorrow night or some other night, but the transit of this mundane sphere through the comet's tail certainly did not occur last night. So the comet parties last night were in vain.

Most scientists agree that the mean old comet swished its tail out of the way last night at the crucial moment and there was not any cyanogen gas for the tail was not there. Prof. Henry N. Russell of the astronomical department of Princeton, said he saw the comet's tail this morning, proof positive that the earth was not passing through it.

R. T. A. Innes, another astronomer of South Africa, declares the tail has moved, being still north of the ecliptic. He thinks the earth will pass considerably south of the tail, missing it altogether.

The Austrian Academy of Science sent out an official denial today that the earth passed through the comet's tail last night.

Doubted the Feat

A new angle to the astronomical mixup was contributed this afternoon by Prof. Aephil Hall of Washington who said that not only did the earth pass through the tail last night but it repeated the performance today. Hall says the earth cut through part of the tail, came out on the inside of the semi-circle and today passed through another portion of the tail. Prof. Hall says his observations bear out this theory.

No it Didn't

Prof. Hale, director of Carnegie observatory, Mount Wilson, California, wired that the tail was distinctly visible at 3 o'clock this morning.

REV. LOWE GOES TO PROVIDENCE

La Crosse Minister Accepts Call from Big Rhode Island Church Today

SEVEN EFFECTIVE YEARS HERE

Popular Pastor of Universalist Church will Leave Here in August

Something—perhaps it was the comet—brought Rev. John S. Lowe good luck today in the form of a notice from the congregation of the Church of the Mediator at Providence, Rhode Island, announcing his selection as pastor. La Crosse shares in well wishes for the popular pastor of St. Paul's Universalist church, but his departure from his local field of labor is generally regretted, as he has been regarded as one of the most effective, broadminded and popular ministers in this city.

Rev. Lowe is especially fortunate in receiving this call in view of the fact there were two very able men beside himself under consideration of the board. The church has a seating capacity of 950 and the congregation is a very large one.

Rev. Lowe delivered a sermon before the congregation at Providence May 8th and May 12th spoke before the Universalist conference of Rhode Island at Harrisville.

The retiring minister came to La Crosse seven years ago the 19th of last month and his work here has been especially effective and productive of good results. He has had various opportunities in the past to accept other and larger congregations, but has remained in this city in the work of building up the St. Paul's congregation which is now one of the strongest church organizations in the city. Mr. Lowe begins his labors in Providence on the first Sunday in September and will leave this city August 1st to spend his month's vacation with relatives in Vonnervue, N. Y.

EXPOSES SUGAR TRUST

NEW YORK, May 19.—Damaging evidence directly implicating several former employees of the American Sugar Refining company was produced today at the trial of Charles R. Heike, when Fred Schwepfeger, a scale employee, was shown the steel spring the government alleges was used to manipulate the scales and asked if he ever saw it before.

"Possibly not that one," he said, "but all of the tallies on the dock had them; we were ordered to use them. Harry Walker, the assistant dock superintendent, now on trial, gave me the spring. He began to use it in 1901. Previously we had hung bags filled with lead on the beam but after the scales were ordered boarded up we had to use the springs to make short weight."

BUYS THE "ROOSEVELT"

NEW ALBANY, Miss., May 19.—Commander Robert E. Peary's famous ship, the Roosevelt, has been sold to Harry Payne Whitney and Paul Rainey, known the world over as sportsmen, who intend to make a hunting and exploring trip this summer.

TO FORCE BUSSE

CHICAGO, May 19.—Petition for a writ of mandamus to compel Mayor Fred A. Busse to issue a permit for the Goch-Zbyszko wrestling match at the White Sox baseball park on Decoration day, May 30, was filed in the superior court by the new Empire A. C. which is to have charge of the mat bout if it is held.

BURIAL PLACE OF THE LATE KING EDWARD VII

Windsor Castle, where King Edward will be buried. Mausoleum in which the remains of Queen Victoria and Consort Prince Albert lie.

LONDON.—According to present plans the remains of the late King Edward will lie in state in Westminster and then be transferred to Buckingham palace, where they will lie in state at least one day. The funeral will take place May 20, and interment will be in the grounds of Windsor castle at Frogmore, in the mausoleum erected for Queen Victoria and Prince consort Albert.

POWDER DEADLY COMET BLAMED

Terrible Cuban Disaster Laid by Panic-Stricken Natives on Shoulders of Sky's Visitor

HAVANA, May 19.—The streets of Pinar del Rio, where 100 persons were killed and 500 injured by an explosion of dynamite last night, were filled today with frightened, praying people. Most of the uneducated do not believe the disaster was caused by human agency but that it was a visitation from heaven. They attribute it to Halley's comet and all attempts to bring them out of their panic stricken, helpless state have so far proved futile.

The inevitable result is that the work of recovering the dead and aiding the injured has to be attempted by the troops, doctors and nurses that were rushed to the city from Havana on three special trains last night.

Many Bodies Recovered

During the night 26 bodies were recovered. All were so badly mangled that recognition was impossible. Others are still being taken out and carried to the temporary morgue where they are being prepared for burial. It is not believed possible to identify more than a dozen of the dead and it is planned to bury all not identified in one common grave in the city cemetery.

It will be at least a week before the ruins can be completely searched. Of the injured in the temporary hospitals, sixty are in such condition that they can hardly be recovered. It is now generally believed by the officials that careless handling of the explosives by the troops who are working in the magazine was responsible for the disaster and that there was no connection with the recent negro uprising.

Ready for Trouble

Although believing that the explosion was purely accidental the government officials are taking no chance of an uprising. The rural guards rushed to the scene are the pick of the force, all men whose loyalty are unquestioned.

The fact that none of the men actively engaged in the work of transferring the explosives survived is likely to make the work of establishing the exact responsibility difficult if not impossible.

This city is filled with rumors of a plot but the officials generally discredit this and say all danger of an uprising disappeared with the recent arrest of Gen. Estenoz.

BADING WINS ONE ROUND

MADISON, Wis., May 19.—(Special.)—The socialistic administration of Milwaukee received a setback today in an opinion by the attorney general holding that Dr. C. A. Bading, health commissioner of the Cream city whom Mayor Seidel has sought to supplant by naming Dr. W. O. Rucker, formerly of the United States marine hospital service, is still health officer and will continue so until his successor is properly appointed and qualified.

THEY HAD HEARD RUMORS

SPRINGFIELD, Ill., May 19.—In the investigation of Jack pot methods of corrupting the Illinois general assembly to defeat certain bills and pass others before the Sangamon grand jury today, J. Mack Glenn, secretary of the Illinois Manufacturers' association, W. D. Eckman of Springfield and John W. Knox, agent for the Derby Desk company, were the principal witnesses. All of them knew nothing for certain but had heard a lot.

FORTUNE STOLEN FROM EXPRESS CO.

Thirty-two Thousand Dollars Seized when Left Carelessly on Counter of Express Office

OIL CITY, Pa., May 19.—Silver and paper money to the amount of $32,024.24 was stolen from the Adams Express company's office here early today. The money had been deposited by Cashier S. S. Montelius, of Philadelphia, paymaster for the Pennsylvania railroad, who had arrived from Olean between 5 and 6 o'clock yesterday afternoon. When Night Manager J. B. Truby came on duty the money was turned over to him, but since it was too bulky to be placed in the safe it was placed under the counter. Truby was forced to leave the office in order to meet several trains last night and this morning.

TEDDY AND PALS IN JAUNT OVER LONDON

LONDON, May 19.—Accompanied by two tried and trusty companions of his hunting days, Col. Roosevelt today set out on a quiet sightseeing tour of old London. His companions were Seth Bullock, friend of his ranchman days on the western plains, and R. J. Cunningham, the noted English big game hunter, who was the principal guide and counselor of the Roosevelt expedition through the African jungle.

Col. Roosevelt tried in vain to make the trip as an unimportant private citizen, but he was recognized wherever the party went.

FAVOR VOTES FOR WOMEN

CHICAGO, May 19.—A majority of the speakers at the socialist congress today declared in favor of woman's suffrage. Their attitude was "that all persons who are governed should have a voice in government." This did not include inferior races that are not yet fitted for self government but did embody all women of the civilized nations.

WONT INCREASE PER CENT

WASHINGTON, D. C., May 19.—The house today refused to increase from 25 to 35 per cent the amount which shall be paid from money received from each forest reserve to the state or territory in which the reserve is located.

TAFT BUTTS INTO IOWA CAMPAIGN

WASHINGTON, D. C., May 19.—It was learned today that President Taft has entered the congressional campaign in Iowa by writing a letter to Gen. Grenville M. Dodge, a constituent of Representative Walter I. Smith, expressing the hope that Smith will be renominated. Smith is one of the men Senators Cummins and Dolliver recently asked the voters of Iowa to retire because they were controlled by Aldrich and Cannon.

FRISCO GETS FIGHT

SAN FRANCISCO, Cal., May 19.—That Tex Rickard has positive assurance that the board of supervisors of this county will make the July fight permit for 45 rounds, was indicated when he today "officially" announced that the Jeffries-Johnson fight will be held in San Francisco.

UNITED STATES TAKES HAND IN NICARAGUA ROW

Uncle Sam's Gunboat Paducah Breaks Blockade, and Madriz will Appeal to Powers for Aid

BLUEFIELDS, May 19.—The United States gunboat Paducah drove the Madriz gunboat Venus away from the Bluefields port today. Just how near there came to being a clash between the two vessels the officers of the Paducah refuse to say but it is believed that Generals Arias and Altschul on the Venus, threatened resistance. Commander Gilmer of the Paducah had notified the Venus that she must not molest vessels trying to enter the Bluefields harbor but the Madriz boat continued her work of enforcing a blockade. The Paducah then drove her away.

The Madriz officials declare they will appeal to the powers.

MILES OF PEOPLE TO VIEW KING'S BODY

LONDON, May 19.—Kneeling prayerfully besides the coffin containing the body of his uncle, the late King Edward, Emperor William of Germany today paid his personal tribute to the monarch with whom he had differed in many essentials. And as the "War Lord of Germany" prayed the long line outside of the barred gates, checked by the guards while the royal mourners were inside, surged impatiently and made it necessary to call additional police and troops to keep it in check.

LONDON, May 19.—This being the last day that King Edward's body will lie in state, another great crowd gathered around Westminster hall, refusing to be driven to shelter by the thunderstorms that drenched the walters.

Kaiser and King Kiss.

LONDON, May 19.—The king of England and the Emperor of Germany embraced each other with tears and kisses at the Victoria station at noon today, when the kaiser arrived from Sheerness.

The kaiser, nephew of the dead king, and popularly credited, with being the arch-foe of England, appeared deeply moved as he greeted King George, his royal cousin.

WANTS DEPARTMENT TO CHECK MURDER

WASHINGTON, D. C., May 19.—Charging that many of the steel plants in Pennsylvania are "slaughter houses," Arthur E. Holder, of the American Federation of Labor, made a sensational argument before the senate committee on public health today in favor of the creation of a federal department of public health. The committee will hear the opponents tonight.

PAULHAN WILL CALL BLUFF OF MICHELIN

PARIS, May 19.—Just to turn the joke on M. Michelin, the pneumatic tire maker, and incidentally to win a prize of $20,000 Louis Paulhan is soon to attempt an aeroplane flight from Paris to Clermont-Ferrand, in the Midi, a distance of 262 hours, in six hours. Three years ago Michelin offered $20,000 for such a flight, and named other conditions that caused the offer to be laughed at at the time, as its conditions were considered impossible. At the start of the flight the aviator must circle the Arch of Triumph at the top of the Champs Elysees and at the conclusion he must fly around the summit of the Puy de Dome, which is 4,813 feet high. Paulhan is said to have expressed the belief that Michelin was bluffing when he made this offer, and "to teach him a lesson," he will attempt the flight, confident of success.

START RIPARIAN SUITS

CHICAGO, May 19.—The state of Illinois through its law department began a number of suits today against the Illinois Central and other parties to gain possession of upland of $25,000,000 worth of Lake Michigan shore land stretching between Sixteenth street and Jackson Park. If the suit is won the city will establish bathing pavilions.

FLEW LONG AND FAST

MOURMELON, France, May 19.—Aviator Cheuret, today flew in a Farman biplane for one hour and twelve minutes with Madame Branger, as a passenger. His speed averaged 60 miles an hour and is believed the fastest ever attained by an aeroplane carrying two passengers.

PEACE CONFERENCE

LAKE MOHONK, N. Y., May 19.—Today's session of the Mohonk peace conference was given up to a discussion of the international court of arbitration justice.

LAWLER HAD DEEP HATE FOR GLAVIS SHERIDAN A KID

Cross Examination Shows Man Taft Had Judge Latimer was Known as Mortal Foe

WASHINGTON, D. C., May 19.—After the Ballinger investigating committee today had directed the department of the interior to search for a letter which forms a missing link in the Perkins correspondence, Oscar Lawler, author of the famous "Lawler draft" of the president's letter, exonerating Ballinger, was recalled to the stand for cross examination.

Brandeis took the witness to task for "evading" his calls for the memorandum. Lawler was cool and collected today, in distinct contrast to his demeanor upon the stand Tuesday.

Brandeis asked if it was not so that he had not included certain facts that were easily obtainable and put in other facts regarding which there was evidence in the office to the contrary.

Senator Sutherland objected immediately declaring that the committee had nothing to do with whether the president's letter was right or wrong. Representative Denby suggested that Brandeis was indirectly seeking to attack the president.

"Well," answered Brandeis, "I can't help criticizing the correctness of the president's letter."

He Hated Glavis

Lawler anticipated another line of questions by the attorney and declared that at one time L. R. Glavis had protested against his (Lawler's) competency.

"Didn't you then write that letter as if you were president with that prejudice in mind?" asked Brandeis. "No prejudice," answered Lawler. "I knew Glavis to be absolutely untruthful."

A long wrangle ensued among the committee as to the advisability of granting Brandeis request for the production of papers in connection with charges by Glavis against Lawler.

Brandeis explained that he thought it was necessary to show that Ballinger knew of his (Brandeis) judgment to the point of hatred.

Lawler bore to Glavis, and yet, following it, introduced Lawler to the president as a proper man to pass judicially on the Glavis charges. The request was refused.

A Roosevelt "Dirty Expert"

After some discussion Lawler was excused and Fred Dennet, commissioner of the land office, was recalled for further cross examination by Brandeis. The attorney developed the fact that the land office had directed government agents to do detective work in running down a certain magazine writer who was attacking Secretary Ballinger.

A letter which Dennet said he thought H. H. Schwartz, chief of the field service, wrote, was read. It said regarding John L. Matthews, a magazine writer:

"I want to get the skunk on record."

Reference was also made to W. J. McGee, one of the members of Roosevelt's former waterways commission.

COMET MAKES NO VISIBLE DISPLAY

Although Earth Passed for Million Miles Through its Tail, Only Simple Aurora Is Seen

LA CROSSE PEOPLE GATHER

Citizens Get Onto Housetops and at River Front,
but There Is Nothing
Doing Here

The Earth last night passed through a million miles of Halley's comet's tail, but there was no outward demonstration that so important an event was transpiring. Outside of a slight Aurora Borealis in northern skies—which might have been seen anyway—and the falling of a few stray meteorites, which also might have fallen anyway, there was no indication that the sphere was wrapped in the million-mile-wide tail of the celestial phenomenon.

From early evening until far into the night crowds gathered at the river front and at advantageous points about the city prepared to take careful observations of any phenomena in connection with the passage through the tail of the comet. But the moon shone calmly and naturally, and the spring showers fanned fair cheeks as in past times and swains took occasion to see the star light reflected in more loved spheres, but that was all. No enormous chunks of nebulous matter were buried in the earth in this vicinity, there was no meteoric shower, no "reddish glow," no faint illumination or weird lights—just a moonlit May evening, and a cool one too.

Some citizens report having seen the aurora borealis in the northern skies for several hours, while others declare they saw a couple of meteorites fall in this vicinity, but that was all the difference from the ordinary noted in this vicinity, so far as can be learned.

Comet Still Visible
Astronomers calculate that the comet will be visible in the vicinity of La Crosse tonight and tomorrow night and even Saturday night more plainly than in the past. It will appear in the western sky at a point near where the sun sets and should be seen soon after sun down. It is estimated it will appear 30 minutes later each night.

An Hour in Crossing
The passage across the sun's disc began at about 9:27 o'clock last evening, taking about an hour to cross. The phenomenon was visible at all the stations established by astronomers in the Pacific. The time of transit is of importance in calculating the passage of the earth through the comet's tail, as that appendage invariably points directly away from the sun, due to some repulsive force of the sun's rays whose nature is not clearly understood.

"The Lick calculations may be accepted as authoritative," said Prof. Barnard. "They have used the very latest observations in their figuring and their results will be the last word on the matter. They added them immediately to the observers in Hawaii and other Pacific points because the comet's head is probably so nearly transparent that its passage across the sun would not be seen unless they were prepared beforehand and knew exactly where to look."

Tail Rapidly Diminishing
In a statement given out at the University of California yesterday Director Lueschner said:

"According to photographs taken May 11, the tail of the comet was 2,000,000 miles in diameter at the distance from the nucleus at which the earth will cross it, but according to information received from Lick observatory the tail is diminishing rapidly in absolute width and length.

"Thus photographs taken at Lick yesterday give the estimate that the width of the tail through which the earth will pass will have shrunk to 1,000,000 miles.

"Theoretically the tail will stretch over 180 degrees of the sky, from horizon to horizon. It probably would be faintly discernible in the southwestern sky if the moon were out of the way. The phenomena therefore will pass entirely unnoticed by the people on the American continent, and it is doubtful whether the observers in the Orient, for whom the transit theoretically is visible, will observe it."

MORE SHOWERS IN THIS VICINITY

Showers tonight and tomorrow are predicted by Weather Observer E. C. Thompson.

A vast field of low pressure central in the upper Missouri valley, overlies the country from the Pacific slope to the Mississippi valley. The temperature has risen generally east of this depression and showers have occurred from the lower Missouri valley to the west gulf states. The temperature has fallen slightly along the Canadian border west of Lake Superior and rain or snow has been general and continues at several stations. An area of high pressure is moving in on the north Pacific coast.

MANY ATTEND THE K. C. MAY PARTY

The annual May party given last evening by the Knights of Columbus at Nicholson-Scott hall was largely attended. From 8 to 9 o'clock a concert was given by Kreutz's orchestra, after which dancing began and continued until a late hour. The hall presented a pretty appearance with the beautiful decorations and the many gay gowns worn by the women. It was one of the most delightful parties given this season.

A STAGE DIVORCE

NEW YORK, May 19.—Mile Daisie, the dancer and pantomimist, formerly known as "La Domino Rouge," has been granted an interlocutory decree of divorce from Mark A. Luescher, general press representative of the Orpheum circuit of vaudeville theaters.

TO LOSE SEINE ARCHES
PARIS, May 19.—Paris may be robbed of the beautiful arches of the bridges across the Seine following a recommendation by Maurice Pictet that they be destroyed because they impede the flow of the Seine and were responsible for the widespread destruction of the flood last January.

MINNESOTA AND THE NORTHWEST

CONSECRATION AT ST. PAUL TODAY

Many Bishops and Priests Attend Ceremonies in which Six Take Their Vows

ST. PAUL, Minn., May 19.—Thirteen million Roman Catholics in the United States and hosts of others throughout the world from Pope Pius X to the lowliest peasant turned their minds towards St. Paul today when the six newly appointed bishops took the vows which placed them in the episcopacy.

After weeks of hard work everything is in readiness for the greatest event in the history of the Roman Catholic church in America and probably in the world. Monsignor Diomedeo Falconio, papal delegate to the United States arrived in St. Paul yesterday and Archbishop F. P. McEvoy of Toronto, Canada, the official representative of the Catholics in that country, arrived this morning.

The seminary at Groveland park this morning presented a spectacle never before witnessed in the northwest if ever in the world. At 9:30 sharp the cadets of St. Thomas college formed in front of the aula maxima on the southern edge of the grounds and the seminarians, numbering about 150 took their place behind the cadets. From this building the vanguard of the procession moved to the east side of the ground where approximately 700 priests took their places behind the seminarians; across the grounds the procession proceeded until the administration building was reached, where the bishop-elect followed by three archbishops and the papal delegate appeared and the actual procession commenced leading to the St. Paul's chapel on the northwest end of the grounds.

The procession was devoid of music. As the procession moved toward the chapel representative of the fifty parishes forming the diocese of St. Paul stood with bare heads in reverential silence, as the newly elected bishops with their purple capes and insignia of office followed the procession.

Among those who were present are the papal delegates, Diomedeo Falconio, the highest Catholic dignitary in the United States; three archbishops, John Ireland of St. Paul, S. G. Messmer of Milwaukee and Ferguson Patrick MacEvoy of Toronto, Canada; 10 monsignors, 20 bishops, 450 priests and 150 seminarians.

Those who were created bishops this morning are: Right Rev. J. J. Lawler of St. Paul to be auxiliary bishop of St. Paul; Right Rev. James O'Reilly of Minneapolis, to be bishop of Fargo, N. D.; Right Rev. Patrick H. Heffron of St. Paul, to be bishop of Winona, Minn.; Right Rev. Vincent Wehrle of Richardson, N. D., to be bishop of Bismarck, N. D.; Right Rev. Timothy Corbett of Duluth, to be bishop of Crookston, Minn.; Right Rev. J. N. Busch of St. Paul, to be bishop of Lead, S. D.

All the bishops-elect donned the Episcopal robes in the administration building and proceeded to the chapel, the cadets standing guard on either side of the entrance door as the procession swept in.

Archbishop Ireland, acting as consecrator, occupied the archiepiscopal throne on the gospel side and the papal delegate occupied the throne on the opposite side. The ceremonies began with the bishops-elect kneeling before the side altar.

The consecration sermon was preached by Rev. Thomas O'Gorman of Sioux Falls. The ceremonies were elaborate and impressive and continued for three and a half hours after which dinner was served to the guests.

DRIVEN TO DEATH BY HEAVY LOSSES

MADISON, S. D., May 19.—The sensation in this city over the discovery of the dead body of E. A. Rippe has given place to a feeling of sympathy for the dead man and his family. The body was braced up in a chair at his office desk, and by his side was the pistol with which the deed was done. A letter was received by his wife through the mail in which he told her that he had lost heavily. He had been in the grain business in this city seven years. He came here from Fairmont, Minn., where he has a brother, Henry Rippe, also in the grain business.

DRUGGISTS TO MEET AT ELKHART LAKE

Druggists of this city are much interested in the annual convention of the Wisconsin Pharmaceutical Association to be held at Elkhart Lake, on June 28, 29, 30 and July 1. "The Pill," a neat publication, is being issued to boost the convention, and copies have been received by the local druggists. The paper is printed on neat paper and contains a lot of good reading matter of interest to every "pill roller" in the state. The May issue contains a picture of O. T.

FACTIONAL ISSUES WILL MARK BATTLE

Congressional Campaign in State will Be on Clearly Drawn
Lines

MADISON, Wis., May 19.—Developments from many sources indicate that the congressional campaigns in this state will be conducted on very definite factional issues and that the demarcation lines between conservative and progressive will be very clearly drawn in all of the districts in which more than one candidate for the republican nomination is running. It is now an open secret that the national republican organization intends maintaining headquarters in Chicago this summer from which a campaign is to be conducted for candidates who are considered friendly to the congressional organization and against republicans who aspire to nominations or renominations on platforms antagonistic to the republican national organization.

CONSERVATIVES MEET TOMORROW

MILWAUKEE, May 19.—There is talk of a political conference to be held in Milwaukee tomorrow by the more conservative members of the republican party in Wisconsin, and that the object of the meeting is to settle once and for all whether to map out a definite program to be followed by that element. The whole movement, it appears, is to be based on support of President Taft's administration.

HEADQUARTERS TO REMAIN AT MADISON

MADISON, Wis., May 19.—(Special.)—It was announced today by Secretary M. W. Tubbs that the result of the referendum vote, conducted by the Wisconsin branch of the American Society of Equity on the retention of the state headquarters in Madison, was five to one in favor of Madison. The directors had previously voted in favor of moving the main office to Eau Claire.

A SOLUTION OF THE LIGHT PROBLEM

The Tribune has mentioned the names of aldermen who are of the opinion that it would be a mistake to build a municipal light plant. These men may be right. Had not the people of La Crosse, by a good majority, ordered the council to build such a plant, these men would think it a bad plan would be in duty bound to oppose the plan in the council. As it is, however, they are bound by the action of the voters does not warrant any general advance in freight rates at this time, but would afford a better argument for reductions.

That any general advance in rates be suspended pending a complete investigation by the interstate commerce commission of the facts.

That pending such investigation the advance will be opposed by the shippers.

Committee of seventeen appointed to carry into effect plan of arbitration.

Failing in conciliatory methods, an injunction will be asked in the courts to prevent the proposed advance going into effect.

Fund of $50,000 to be raised to defray expenses of campaign.

To compel the railroads to submit to a fair hearing upon the matter, hoping thereby to prevent unjust increases, in Tuesday's session of their convention they passed the following resolutions:

"Resolved, that this convention demands that the carriers in official classification territory suspend the proposed advance in class and commodity rates and submit the question to the interstate commerce commission for arbitration to determine from the facts whether any general advance in rates is reasonable or necessary; and be it further

"Resolved, that pending and during such arbitration we oppose the general advance in rates as proposed by the lines in said territory; and be it further

"Resolved, that a committee of fifteen be appointed by the chair to carry into effect this plan for arbitration.

"Failing in such conciliatory methods, said committee is empowered to take such action as will in its judgment prevent the proposed general advance in freight rates."

If the conciliatory methods suggested by the above resolutions fail of effect, the shippers propose to take such action as they deem best to force the issue. There can be no doubt that they have the moral support of the public in their undertaking.

SPOTLIGHTS

MA-HAT-MA ENTERTAINS LADIES

Tomorrow afternoon, after the matinee performance at the Majestic theatre, Ma-hat-ma, the woman of mystery, who is creating much comment among the theatre goers of the city, will entertain the ladies privately. All the men at the afternoon performance will be kindly requested to excuse themselves from the theatre and the women will be asked to remain. All questions will be answered by the woman of mystery and writing your question on paper will not be necessary. It is an opportunity that no woman should miss.

How does she do it? This is what is bothering most of the theatre patrons in the city. Ma-hat-ma is the sensation of the week here as in all the other cities in which she has shown. She terms her work psychic phenomena. Her mysterious power is acknowledged by all who have seen her and she is one of the very few exponents of the mysterious art whose work has not been demonstrated to be a fake. She

Feet Tired-- So Tired?

TIZ Makes Sick Feet Well No Matter What Ails Them

TIZ acts at once and makes tired, aching, swollen feet remarkably fresh and sore proof.

It's the sure remedy, you know, for everything that gets the matter with your feet. It's for sore feet and for corns, callouses and bunions, too.

"For years I have been troubled with sore and tender feet; suffered intense pains. Have had the assistance of physicians without relief. I bought a box of TIZ, which worked a perfect cure, as it has with a great many of my friends. I would not be without it. All it requires is to be known to be universally used." A. F. Drentzer, Chicago.

TIZ is not a powder. Powders and other foot remedies clog up the pores. TIZ draws out all poisonous exudations which bring on soreness of the feet, and is the only remedy that does. TIZ cleans out every pore and glorifies the feet—your feet.

You'll never limp again or draw up your face in pain, and you'll forget about your corns, bunions and callouses. You'll feel like a new person.

TIZ is for sale at all druggists, 25 cents per box, or it will be sent you direct, if you wish from Walter Luther Dodge & Co., Dept. 489, Dodge Bldg., Chicago, Ill.

works in the open and not under cover like most of the so-called mind readers of the present day. All her work is done on a little platform constructed away from the stage proper. Every part of it is visible from beneath and from behind, showing that there is no connection with a confederate under the stage. She does not work under a sheer, so that a confederate can read the questions to her from under the stage by way of a speaking tube which can be pushed out and pulled back at will. People in the audience who are desirous of asking her questions write them on a paper of their own. The writer takes his question and keeps it while the pads are collected and given to someone in the audience to hold while Ma-hat-ma is doing the work. At every performance people have been mystified by this clever woman as she has answered at least three-fourths of all the questions asked her, and in many cases given details which stamp her as a marvel in her line of work.

Showing Off
It was at a little northwestern town in New South Wales. A traveling Englishman stood on the veranda of the public house watching the sun go down across the Black Soil plains in a splendor of purple and gold.

"By Jove!" he exclaimed to an impassive bushman who was lounging against a post. "That's gorgeous isn't it?"

The bushman slanted his head a little, and looked critically at the glowing west.

"Not bad," he drawled; "not bad—fer a little place like Boggabri."

Father-in-Law's Chance

Said Mr. Bullion to his intended son-in-law:

"Have you fixed up the date for the wedding yet, young man?"

"That," replied the tactful young man, "I shall leave entirely to Mary."

"And what kind of an affair is it going to be? Do you want it done in style, or would you prefer it to be a quiet show?"

The young man considered for a moment. Then he said:

"I think, sir, I should leave that entirely to Mrs. Bullion."

"Um. And what is the amount of your income?"

"Oh, that, sir," answered the pleasant young fellow, "I leave that entirely to you, Mr. Bullion."—Answers.

A Fresh Start

A girl came in and sat in front of them at the play, she and her escort. "What a lovely profile!" said he. "Beautiful! Delicate little upturned nose, small mouth, deep, pretty eyes! Isn't she beautiful—beautiful?"

"Beautiful," said she, "but not half so much so as the man she is with. Isn't he the handsomest chap you ever saw? Look at his color, his mustache, his lovely head of hair. So many men are bald or beginning to be bald. I do love to see a fine head of hair on a man."

"You know," he whispered, "it always makes me sore to speak of people beginning to be bald, and you know why?"

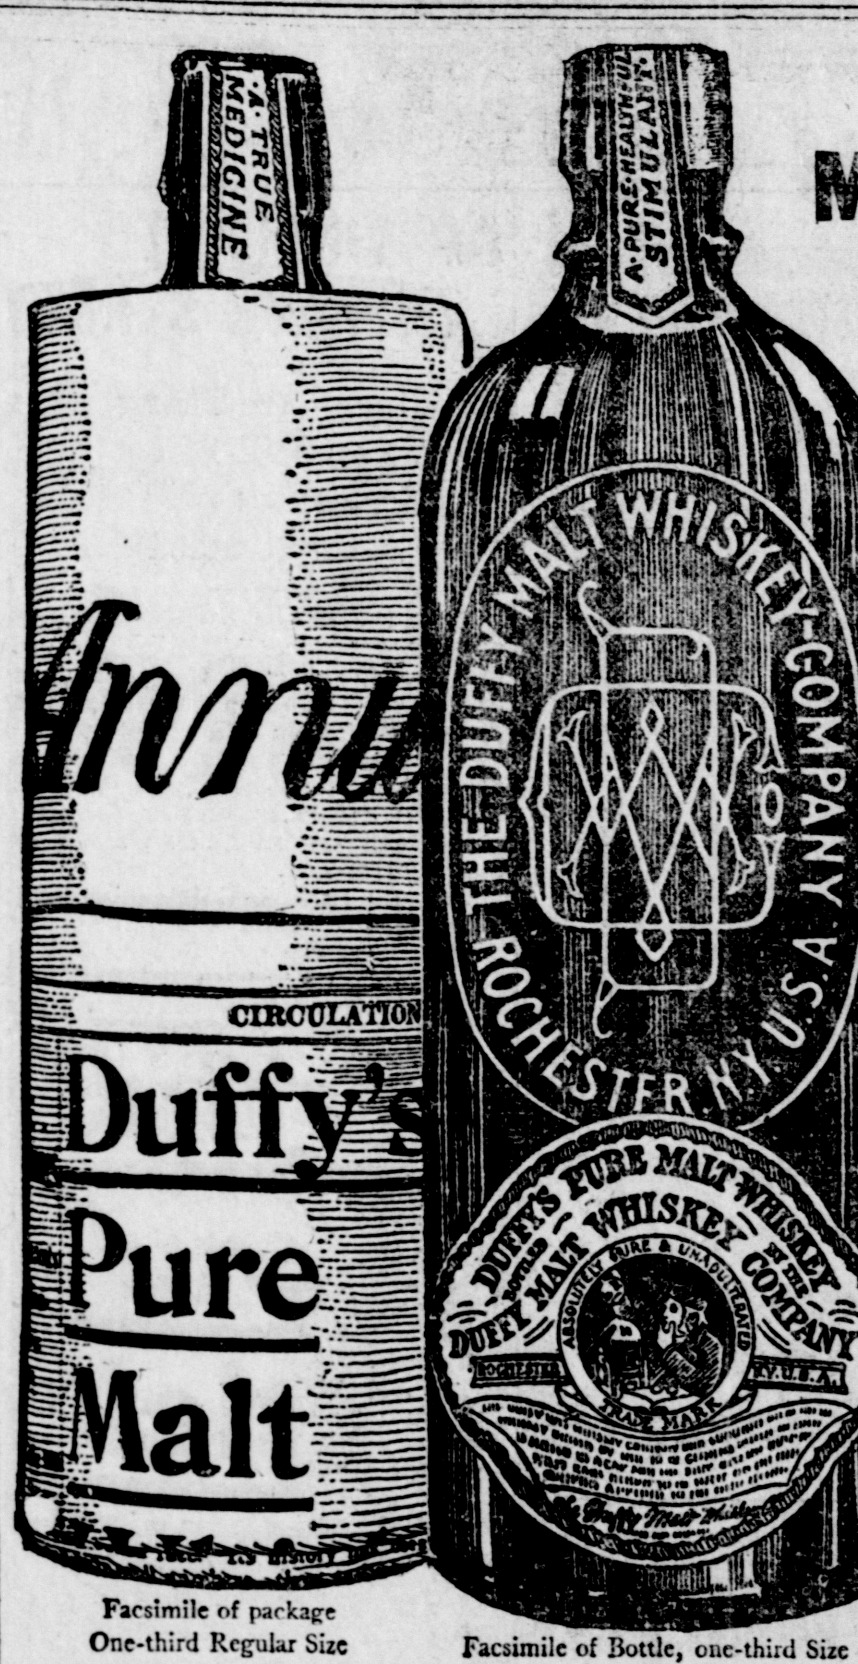

"Will you let up on the pretty profile if I cut out the bald head?" she asked.

"Yes," said he.

"All right," said she.—New York Press.

He would be a good orator to engage for our Fourth of July celebration.—Prairie du Chien Courier.

One True Medicinal Whiskey

Beware of So-called Ones—Imitations

Unscrupulous dealers, mindful only of their profit and caring nothing for the health of their patrons, are offering for sale low grade mixtures, which they tell you are "as good as" Duffy's Pure Malt Whiskey.

Some go so far as to try to make you believe it is Duffy's Pure Malt Whiskey. These cheap concoctions are foisted on the people with the intent to deceive.

When a remedy has been before the public for more than half a century, has been prescribed and used by the best doctors and in prominent hospitals, and has carried the blessing of health into so many thousands of homes as Duffy's Pure Malt Whiskey has, imitations are bound to arise. They may imitate the bottle and label only—no one can imitate the contents.

Duffy's Pure Malt Whiskey

is an absolutely pure distillation of malted grain. Its palatability and its freedom from injurious substances render it so that it can be retained by the most sensitive stomach. It has been used with remarkable results in the treatment of consumption, pneumonia, grip, coughs, colds, malaria, fevers, stomach troubles and all wasting and diseased conditions.

It is sold in sealed bottles only. The Old Chemist's Head is on the label, and over the cork is an engraved seal. Be certain the seal is unbroken. Sold by druggists, grocers, dealers, or direct, $1.00 a large bottle.

Write Medical Department, The Duffy Malt Whiskey Co., Rochester, N. Y., for doctor's advice and valuable medical booklet containing testimonials and common sense rules for health, both sent free.

THE COUPON BALLOT

NOTE—Articles under this heading are for the information of the voter, who should follow them to familiarize himself with the new ballot which he will have to use this fall.

THE COUPON BALLOT

As Seen by Old Bill Offenhard and His Son Bob

"I don't see," said Old Bill Offenhard, who had served on the election board once, and thought he knew all about voting and elections, "how that left-over part of that new fangled ballot is going to be any good to make a recount from."

"How do they tell what a man voted for by looking at what he left? Suppose he did tear off what he wanted and put it into a small folder and put the balance into a larger envelope? And anyhow, if they could that wouldn't be a secret ballot."

"Oh, you gotter show me," continued Bill, "I don't believe in these new schemes to tangle up the 'telligent and ball up the balance."

"Dad, the reason you don't see," said Bill's boy, Bob, who had read about the Coupon Ballot, caught the idea and reasoned it out, "is because you are looking for something hard. It's too simple for you."

"Suppose," continued Bob, "that some scamp came along tonight and stole four or five of your pet hens. I think that you would be able to tell from those that were left, which ones were gone. But that would be hard, compared with the idea of giving the remainder of a lot the value of the ABSENT PORTION—as that law says the court must do, if they recount a precinct."

"Suppose the Secretary of State when he establishes the colors that each party's sheet in the ballot must be, gives the republican party the red and the democrats the blue," continued Bob, "you know I am going to vote the republican ticket all except Dan Ketchum easy for sheriff. Dan is a democrat you know."

"Now, Dad, I will just tear out the red sheet from the ballot and put it into the small envelope whole. Then I will take out Dan's name which will be on coupon number 12 of the BLUE SHEET and simply put in with the red sheet. I don't need to do any more except to put what is left of the ballot back into the large envelope and come out of the booth and then seal both envelopes up or let the inspectors seal them. They will stick the small envelope into the pocket on the back of the large envelope to hold them together while they are in the ballot box and drop it into the box."

"But," said Old Bill, "won't you have to tear out Oscar Goodfeller's name on coupon number 12 from the red sheet, so that there won't be two names for sheriff in the small envelope? One loose and one attached to the red sheet?"

"No," said Bob, "I could do that but I don't need to. The law says that the loose coupon, in such a case shall be counted for the name it bears, even if I have failed to tear out its opponent from the party sheet."

"Should a recount happen to be ordered by the court in this precinct because Dan Ketchum easy lost the county by three votes, and Dan's friends thought there was monkey work somewhere, the court when it came to that ballot which I voted, of course would not know who voted it."

"Yes they would know," interrupted Old Bill, "they numbered that ballot of yours. Same number on both the small envelope and the large one."

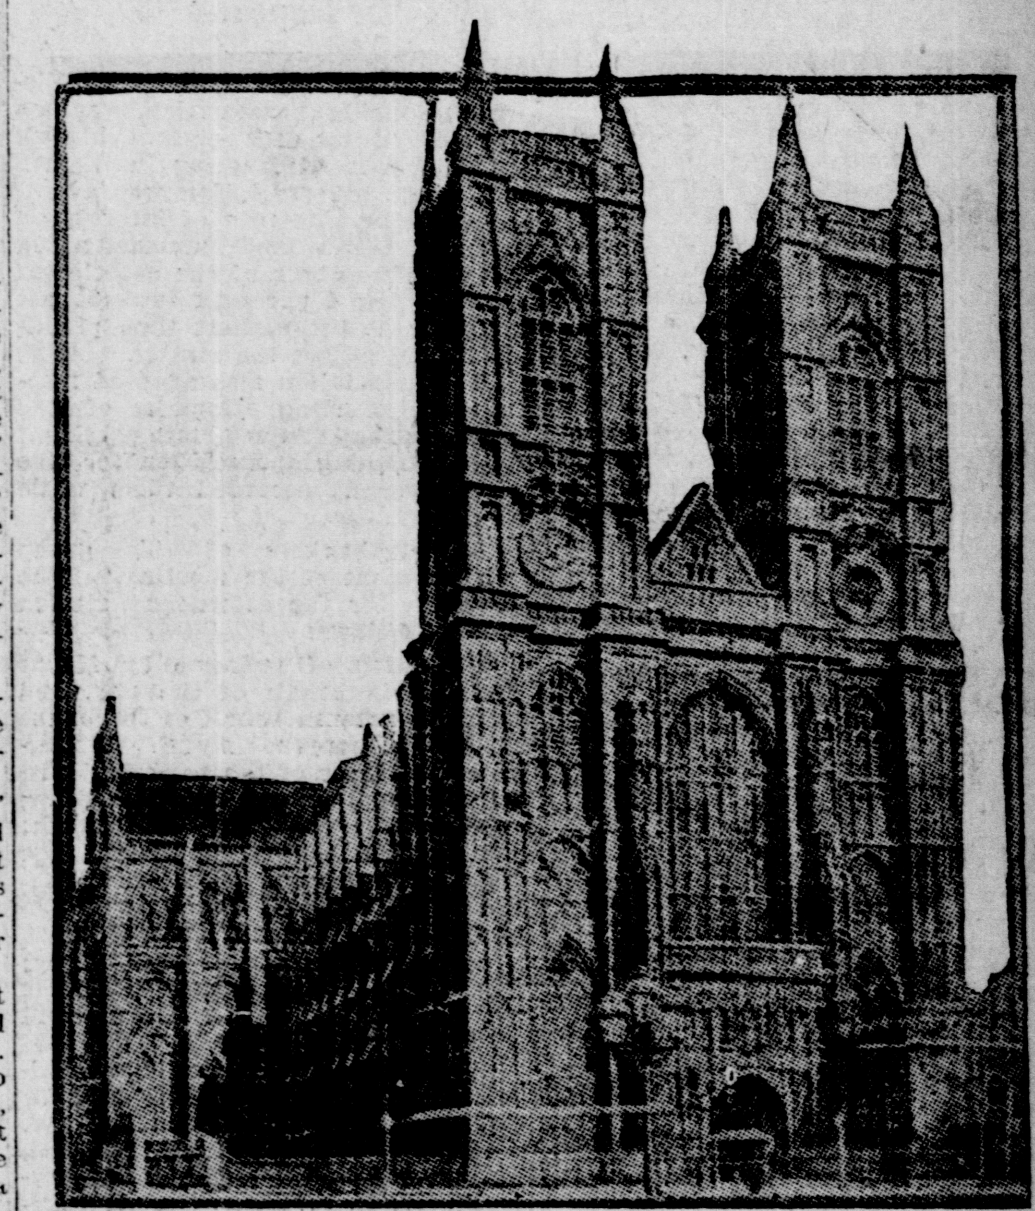

"Oh Dad, there is where you are off again," impatiently said Bob. "No I ain't off on that either, I tell you."

"O, now just wait a minute, Dad, don't get excited, just a minute. You see that number was put on to both parts of that ballot, AFTER IT CAME OUT OF THE BALLOT BOX. No one knew then who voted it. It lost its identity with me the moment it sank into the box out of sight and was covered up by other ballots."

"O, ding bust it you're right there Bob! I forgot that. But how is that committee that the court appoints to recount this precinct going to tell from that remainder part of your ballot which sheriff you intended to vote for if both sheriff's names are gone from it, as you said you were going to vote it?"

"When they unseal that large envelope containing the remainder of my ballot, which has been sealed ever since I sealed it, they will find the entire red sheet missing. The blue sheet will be there but there will be a hole in it where I tore out blue coupon number 12 with Dan Ketchum easy's name on it. That tells them how I voted just as well

The blue sheet will be there but there will be a hole in it where I tore out blue coupon number 12 with Dan Ketchum easy's name on it. That tells them how I voted just as well as what I put into the small envelope told this local board when THEY counted it."

"Well I'll be darned! Bob you read that law over good didn't yer? I spose it's all right. I know I can vote it all right after I see a sample but I'm going to bother you some more about it tomorrow."

OLDFIELD PREPARES FOR HARD SEASON

CHICAGO, May 19.—Barney Oldfield, auto speed king, is in Chicago today. He arrived from Denver and will spend about ten days in recuperation to precede what he declares will be his hardest season. Barney brought with him a shipment of three racing cars, among which, his 142 an hour Benz. Oldfield's next racing date is at Kansas City June 3.

MALLOY AFTER A PITCHING STAFF

RED WING, Minn., May 19.—Manager Mike Malloy of the local team returned yesterday from Minneapolis, where he had been seeking pitchers. He returned unsuccessful but has gotten a line on Pitcher Sporer who twirled excellent ball in the Western Canada league last year. It is expected that Malloy will land him.

No Man is Stronger Than His Stomach

A strong man is strong all over. No man can be strong who is suffering from weak stomach with its consequent indigestion, or from some other disease of the stomach and its associated organs, which impairs digestion and nutrition. For when the stomach is weak or diseased there is a loss of the nutrition contained in food, which is the source of all physical strength. When a man "doesn't feel just right," when he doesn't sleep well, has an uncomfortable feeling in the stomach after eating, is languid, nervous, irritable and despondent, he is losing the nutrition needed to make strength.

Such a man should use Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery. It cures diseases of the stomach and other organs of digestion and nutrition. It enriches the blood, invigorates the liver, strengthens the kidneys, nourishes the nerves, and so gives HEALTH AND STRENGTH TO THE WHOLE BODY.

You can't afford to accept a secret nostrum as a substitute for this non-alcoholic medicine of known composition, not even though the dealer may thereby make a little bigger profit. Ingredients printed on wrapper.

CONTINUING TO IMPROVE STREET

Buildings Are Being Torn Down on Mill Street and Residences will Be Constructed

That the efforts of the committee appointed by the North Side Progressive League for the purpose of bringing pressure to bear upon property owners on Mill street with a view to razing the old and dilapidated buildings, has not been in vain can easily be seen. Many improvements are now being made for this very reason.

The old store building which has been located at St. Cloud and Mill streets, near the new Copeland park and which has been an eye sore for many years, has been torn down by the owner, Jos. Gale, and he is now planning to erect a residence there. The new building will be a bungalow and will present a neat appearance on this much travelled street corner.

The old building owned by Adolph Breuer of Minneapolis and which until recently was occupied by the North side laundry is being remodelled and it is rumored that club rooms will be established on the second floor.

The old Wichter hotel building has been greatly improved and is now occupied, the place having opened for rooming purposes.

Another little shack in the lower end of the street near the Milwaukee railroad crossing is being remodelled by the owner Tracey Merrill and will soon be occupied by him.

HIGHS MEET AGGIE TEAM SATURDAY

Saturday morning, the high school baseball team will meet the Agricultural school nine at Onalaska. This will doubtless prove a good game, as the locals have been playing a fine game lately, and ought to make a good showing against the Aggies.

Yesterday afternoon the faculty and Lit club baseball teams played their first game in the Literary league, the pros winning a hotly contested game by the score of 8 to 7. The Lit club had a chance to tie in the ninth, when they had a man on third base, but there were two out, and Hodgson finished the game by striking out the third man. The game was close all the way, both pitchers doing good work. Hodgson and Klein formed the battery for the faculty, while Ray and Shaw were the battery for the Lit.

Peace day was observed by the junior class of the high school yesterday, that class instead of reciting writing themes on a subject presented by a government committee. Some very good themes were written, and a few of the best ones will be sent to headquarters. Peace day is a new departure, and this is the first time that it has been observed at the local school. Mr. Reed, who was here in the interests of the G. A. R. a short time ago, bringing information of it.

MAY TRANSFER THE JEFF-JOHNSON FIGHT

(By Max Balthasar) SAN FRANCISCO, Cal., May 19.—If the board of supervisors of San Francisco county adopt the recommendation of its police committee and make the fight permit to be granted Jim Griffin for the July fight good for 45 instead of 20 rounds the Jeffries-Johnson fight will be at once transferred to this city. The board meets Monday next.

Jack Gleason, and Jim Griffin held an extended conference today at which they discussed the transfer of the permit. Griffin said he would gladly do so and terms were arranged although they were not made public.

A SENSATIONAL TILT

WASHINGTON, D. C., May 19.—A heated tilt between Senators Rayner (D., Md.) and Hughes (D., Cal.) marked the consideration by the senate of the railroad bill.

Hughes bitterly resented what he termed an insinuation by Rayner that he (Hughes) was a representative of the special interests. Rayner subsequently disclaimed any such insinuation.

WAR CRISIS AVERTED

WASHINGTON, D. C., May 19.—Through a tri-partite offer of mediation on the part of the United States, Brazil and the Argentine Republic, the war crisis between Peru and Ecuador is believed to have been averted.

CANCER FATAL TO MRS. JORGENSEN

North Side Woman Died Yesterday at Home After Long Illness; Funeral Tomorrow

Mrs. Anna Kristine Torgersen, aged 68 years, died at her home, at 1227 George street, yesterday after a long illness with cancer. Deceased is survived by a number of children. Her husband died a number of years ago.

Deceased was born in Norway, June 27, 1841. She has been a resident of the North side for many years.

Funeral services will be held at the residence at 2 o'clock tomorrow afternoon, Rev. Larson of the Scandinavian Baptist church officiating and Undertaker Sletten in charge. Interment will be made in the Oak Grove cemetery.

Thomas' error, Rice and Widell, who followed, hurled a fine game. Eau Claire's pitchers were wild, and a victory for Red Wing looked certain in the ninth, with one run in and two on the bags. Pitcher Short saved the day for Eau Claire by retiring the side on ground balls. The score:

A BRILLIANT RECEPTION

The handsome home of B. E. Edwards was the scene of a brilliant afternoon reception yesterday, the hostesses being Mrs. B. E. Edwards and her daughter-in-law, Mrs. E. O. Edwards. Receiving with the ladies was Mrs. A. R. Osborne, the mother of Mrs. B. E. Edwards, whom it is always a pleasure to meet. Beautiful and choice flowers delighted the eye and were used with great profusion. In the reception room were magnificent long stemmed American beauty roses, while on a side table was a large bunch of pink roses and ferns. In the center of the dining room table was a large bowl of pink roses, daisies and foliage. The ladies assisting in this room were Mrs. H. L. Colman and Mrs. James B. Taylor, who alternated with Mrs. L. P. Benetz and Mrs. Andrew Lees in serving the coffee and salad. Their assistants were the Misses Helen and Anne Edwards, the Misses Clara and Bessie Osborne, Mrs. I. B. Knutesen and Miss Mary Alice Smith. Pink roses and pink carnations were used in the reception hall. Mrs. L. C. Colman and Mrs. R. E. Osborne assisted in this room, ushering the guests to the refreshment rooms. Red carnations were used effectively in the music room and ice cream room. Mrs. J. E. McConnell and Mrs. George Gordon served the ice cream and cake, assisted by Charlotte Colman and Eleanor Edwards. A very delightful feature of the occasion was the violin numbers by Miss Florence Hoffman accompanied by Miss Julia Hoffman.

Old Settlers' Outing

The first visit of the J. S. to Winona this season will be on Monday, June 27, when the Winona County Old Settlers' association will bring an excursion to La Crosse. The old settlers last year had the last August date of this boat, and it was delayed with a Sunday excursion out of St. Paul and was unable to get here at the starting time, and so the excursion had to be called off. There will be no trouble of that kind this year, as the boat goes to Winona from La Crosse. It is expected by that time there will have been a good stage of water in the river.

BLITZ and BLATZ

Blitz—Say Blatz, why is a king like a down broken wheelbarrow?

Blatz—Never had that put before me before. Why is he, I ask you?

Blitz—Well, I once knowed the answering but I forgot it. But I recollection it was very amusing, it makes me laugh yet if I think about it. And that reminds me that I must go to Beyschlag's Drug Store on 503 Main street, and get a 50c bottle of "Cleopatra Cream."

Blatz—So? What for is it, say it?

Blitz—Oh I don't know exactly, but my wife uses it for the face when she goes calling.

Blatz—Ach ja! That was the reason she has such a loving complexion. It was admiring it yesterday when she passed me. Blitz, I believe I will join you and bring mine a bottle home also, because it was the finest complexion on the face I ever witnessed.

Blitz—What time have you now Blatz?

Blatz—10:32½ by Irvine's time which you know is standard.

Blitz—Well let's go then.

Talbot of Lincoln, Neb.
Address by Mrs. Eva Childs of Hanover, Wis.

2:30 p. m.—Contest between Forester and Royal Neighbor drill teams on the lagoon square for prizes.

3:30 p. m.—Grand pig catching contest, winner to have the pig.

Henry C. Reget, 1138 State street, was entered by a burglar, who caught Mr. Reget's five months' old pup, wrapped him in a blanket and carried him to a barn across the alley, where he locked him up, after which the burglar returned to the house. Mr. Reget was up during the night with a sick child and he heard something creeping on the floor. He met the burglar half way up the stairway, the latter having a dark lantern in one hand and a revolver in the other. He immediately turned around, however, when he saw Mr. Reget, and made his escape. Nothing was missing from the house.

Nearly every time a man approaches a new field of pleasure he bumps up against a "keep off the grass" sign.

STOP SEINING IN BLACK RIVER HERE

Deputy Warden Holmes
Cites Law Prohibiting
Netting in County
Limits

Deputy Game Warden Arthur Holmes today announced that seining is not permitted in that portion of Black River in La Crosse county. There has been some controversy between the seiners over this question, a number maintaining that seining was allowable in this stream. However, Warden Holmes produces a copy of the fish and game laws of the state, showing that by the provisions of section 68, chapter VI, seining is prohibited. The section of the law covering the point follows: "The state fish and game warden may upon application by any resident or non-resident of the state of Wisconsin issue a license to use and operate a seine, pyke, hoop net or turtle net in any of the inland waters of the state of Wisconsin, except Rice Lake, Round Lake, French Slough and Glack River in La Crosse county. . . ."

STILL SEE TAIL TO EAST OF EARTH

and that it curved in a great arc through the sky, thus missing the earth.

(By Prof. Harold A. Jacoby, Rutherford, Professor of Astronomy at Columbia University.)

NEW YORK, May 19.—The fact that the comet's tail was not visible at the time of its contact with the earth which is now past, must be regarded as a vindication of the general belief of astronomers that the tail is so thin that its presence is undetectable. The wonder of the comet becomes why such an attenuated body can be seen when off in distant space. After comparing the prints of the comet made in 1835 with observations made during the last few days, it seems that there is little change in the comet's appearance and that brings up an interesting question about that abnormally long tail. If the comet is shedding its core out into that filmy veil all the way through its journey, it is hard to figure how it has lasted as long as it has in its many periodic returns, never changing. It is quite probable comets grow tails within this particular solar section. When we first locate the comets they are only a blur. There appears to be no tail. Then the tail begins to grow, increasing constantly as the sun is approached. Maybe, then, the sun makes the tail by making the comet's head boil with its heat or driving the particles off by friction of its rays.

No Solid Matter
MANILA, May 19.—There is an utter absence of solid matter in the nucleus of Halley's comet, according to the expert astronomers who viewed it at the esult observatories here and at Antipolo and Baguio. Weather conditions for viewing the comet were the sun were most favorable. There was a slight layer of clouds intervening while three natural sun spots shaded the bright light and facilitated the search for solid matter.

Even Head is Harmless
Father Akue, the chief observer, declared that his views indicated absolutely that there could have been no disaster even had the head of the comet hit the earth. He made several observations from which he intends to prepare maps for the benefit of the astronomers in the United States.

SHOWERS OF METEORS
NEW ORLEANS, La., May 19.—Reports from Opelousas, Franklin, Plaquemine, Donaldsonville and various other Louisiana points today say that numerous meteors were visible in the heavens last night. As a result negroes are badly frightened and refuse to go to work in the fields today. It is estimated that 25,000 are idle through fear of the meteors, which they associate with the comet.

The showers of meteors in some instances illuminated the skies for twenty minutes at a time.

Can't Prove Passage
ANN ARBOR, Mich., May 19.—The earth has had a brand new experience or at least one it has not had in eons—in passing through the tail of Halley's comet. There is no doubt in the mind of Prof. W. J. Hussey, formerly of the Lick Observatory, now head of the astronomy department of the University of Michigan that the experience occurred some time last night.

"Though we probably passed through the tail of the comet," he said, "observations through the night gave absolutely nothing to prove it. All our computations have shown the tail at this time to be over 2,000,000 miles long which was sufficient, with the comet only 14,000,000 miles from us to sweep the tail across the earth. The exact time of the passage could not be told on account of the curvature in

NEW COMET NOT MARKER TO OLD

Judge Brindley Recalls a Phenomenon 45 Years
Ago which Lighted
Heavens

"Seems strange such an important comet as Halley's comet cannot be seen more readily," said Judge Brindley this morning. "There were hundreds of people on the lookout last night, but I haven't heard of anyone seeing the comet. It seems queer, too, that no mention is made at this of the comet which visited the earth about forty-five years ago. I was just a boy, but I remember well just how it looked, it appeared every night for a long time, in the northern skies. It was equipped with an immense tail and it lighted up the sky and earth brighter than the moonlight. There was never very much fuss made over that comet, and it certainly was plainer than Halley's."

Court Reporter Harrison says he also remembers the comet 45 years ago, and declares it was accompanied by a meteoric shower which made it appear as though all the stars were falling.

the appendage which science has not exactly computed."

Bottled Air Normal
BERLIN, May 19.—Fifty-two balloon parties which carried scientists to the higher altitudes for a better study of the passage of the earth through the comet's tail have made official reports declaring that they saw nothing and noted no changes in the air. Bottled samples of air taken at all altitudes have been analyzed and found to be absolutely the same as when the earth is not in such close proximity to the celestial visitor. There was no trace of cyanogen gas found.

Can See Nothing
PARIS, May 19.—Keen disappointment is expressed by the learned French astronomers who spent the entire night at their giant telescopes in the hope that they would witness some untoward phenomena while the earth was flashing through the million-wide-tail of the comet.

Absolutely nothing was seen by the scientists that would add to their knowledge of the celestial visitor.

Some Tragedies
Some of the comet dining parties ended tragically, owing to an over-indulgence in strong drink. Jean Monceau and Rene Richelo, looking skyward from roofs in different parts of the city lost balance and fell to the ground. Both died instantly. A number of other persons were injured by falling from roofs.

Was a Little Late
PRINCETON, N. J., May 19.—The earth did not begin to pass through the tail of Halley's comet until 8 o'clock, according to Prof. Henry Norris Russell, professor of astronomy at Princeton university.

"The reason for this is the tail has a curve," declared the professor. "This caused the tail to swing away from the earth and consequently we did not strike it at the expected time."

SAW THE COMET BEFORE

WASHINGTON, D. C., May 19.—At least one national lawmaker viewed with equanimity the approach of the earth and Halley's comet Wednesday night. Seventy-five years ago Senator Stephenson saw this wanderer of the sky. Several members of the present senate were children in arms when the earth and comet made their previous bow, but none except Senator Stephenson is old enough to remember this visit.

GIRLS WHISPERED IN CIRCUIT COURT

A delegation of a dozen normal school girls yesterday afternoon paid a visit to the circuit court room to see the trial in session, during the trial of the case against the La Crosse Steel Roofing company. During their presence the court had to ask for order several times owing to whispering among the visitors.

"EXCUSE CLUB" IN ALL NIGHT VIGIL

Gotham Leads in Festivities
as Earth Hurls Itself
Through Tail of Halley's Comet

NEW YORK, May 19.—It was along toward noon today when the last member of the "Excuse club," an unincorporated organization, hung his hat on the chandeliers, draped his trousers in careful folds on the steam radiator and climbed somewhat unsteadily into the hay, remarking that "Halley is the good fellow."

While the southern negroes in dread of the comet were joining the church, the "excuse club" was also enrolling many ambitious members along the White Way, getting them coming and going. Those who feared the end of the world braced their waning courage with a few stiff drinks. Those who were glad the world did not come to an end celebrated likewise. And those who had the hardihood to pass up both excuses simply could not resist a chance to sneeze to a bar boy that he wanted a "syzygy cocktail."

There were certainly some tall doings in New York in the wee sma' hours of today while the earth was plunging recklessly through the tail of Mr. Halley's comet. New Year's eve was outdone in the revelry of the cometites.

It was funny the number of people who gathered in enclosed lobster palaces to "see the comet." Men in evening dress and the women in gowns as filmy as the comet's tail were all members of the "excuse club."

The Manhattan hotel had a 15 inch telescope for the benefit of its guests and tables loaded with eats and drink. The Waldorf-Astoria, too, had a telescope and a lot of amateur astronomers—who did not see the comet. The Plaza roof was loaded with diners.

A special comet dinner was served in the rooms of the Italian National club.

Washington "Sees" Comet
WASHINGTON, D. C., May 19.—The capital was prepared to greet the comet's tail with all the merry making that usually greets a new administration or a new year. The streets were filled nearly all night with star gazers and every available roof held its own particular comet party. Hundreds stood near the naval observatory and waited for word from Prof. Asaph Hall and his fellow astronomers. But the scientists saw no more than the waiting crowds.

Up All Night
DENVER, Col., May 19.—Local members of the "Excuse club" did not retire at noon today. They remained "on the job" to welcome Halley's comet to the western skies this evening.

ROOFING CASE TO GO TO THE JURY

The case of the Stanley Scandinavian Evangelical Lutheran congregation against the La Crosse Steel Roofing and Corrugating company, which has been on trial for two days in circuit court, will probably go to the jury this afternoon. The alternate jury has been excused until 4 o'clock this afternoon, when it is expected another case will be taken up. Judge Higbee this morning overruled a motion for non-suit in the roofing case, which involves a breach of warranty.

CAMERON PLAYING FAST AT OAKLAND

According to reports in national sporting and baseball papers, Don Cameron of this city, who is covering the initial sack for the Oakland team in the Pacific coast league, is hitting the ball like a fiend and fielding perfectly. In every game Cameron gets all the way from one to four hits and many of them are for extra bases. If he keeps up his present rate with the stick he will be one of the leading batters in the league at the end of the season.

EXCURSION FROM VIROQUA SUNDAY

The La Crosse & Southeastern road will run an excursion from Viroqua to La Crosse next Sunday on account of the matinee at the Majestic theatre and the baseball game between La Crosse and Wausau. A large number of persons from Viroqua and the towns along the road will take advantage of the opportunity of spending a day in this city. The train will leave Viroqua at 8:00 o'clock in the morning and returning will leave this city at 6:30 o'clock in the evening.

Sheridan a "Kid"

"The prosecution's" attorney next turned his attention to James M. Sheridan, the special agent whom Dennett placed in charge of the government's suit to cancel the Cunningham coal cases.

Brandeis brought out that Sheridan had only been out of law school thirteen months and that he had only had forty days' experience in coal cases prior to that assignment.

COMMITTEE PLANS MOTORBOATOUTING

Launch Owners will Enjoy the Big Love Feast at "Ferndale" in June

Cofmodore John C. Toeller of the La Crosse Motorboat club today announced the appointment of the committee to have charge of the arrangements for the first Motorboat Club outing which is to be held early next month.

Vice-commodore Otto J. Munz is made chairman of the committee, and Director Theodore Thompson and G. Dollert the other members. With the privileges of appointing a fourth member if desired. John P. Salzer has offered the club the use of his summer cottage and grounds, "Ferndale" for the event, and the committee will confer with Mr. Salzer immediately in regard to the date and arrangements which will be announced later.

Members of the club will be privileged to invite friends, and although the outing is a "stag" affair, it is expected there will be a large attendance. It is likely that the committee will announce an hour of arrival at Ferndale, so that the boat owners can leave La Crosse as they choose on the date selected for the picnic grounds. Returning in the evening, it is expected the boats will form in parade dress and move into La Crosse in the form of a procession. This would be the first similar gathering of the motorboats and should create an interesting spectacle.

PATHFINDER CAR TO BE HERE TODAY

The pathfinder car for the Sentinel endurance run through Wisconsin this summer will arrive in this city some time during the afternoon. Yesterday the car ran into Madison from Milwaukee, finding the roads in bad condition, many of them being nothing more than mud holes. Pilot Moore expects today's run to be comparatively easy. They will come by way of Portage and Sparta and will remain here over night. Capt. Barker will assist in piloting the car into La Crosse, and as he knows the route like a book, no trouble is anticipated on this leg of the run. The car is expected to arrive at the Stoddard hotel about 5 o'clock this afternoon, but because of the recent rains it is probable that the time of arrival will be later.

The men will leave early tomorrow morning, going to Eau Claire, where they will remain over night.

CUDAHY'S MAY KISS
KANSAS CITY, Mo., May 19.—That a reconciliation may soon be effected between John P. Cudahy and Mrs. Cudahy through their four children is again reported among friends of the couple today. They have not met or spoken since the night Cudahy attacked Jere Lillis in the Cudahy home. The children are living with Mrs. Cudahy at the family home but by agreement meet their father several times a week at the Baltimore hotel. Cudahy has taken them home on several occasions in his automobile but has never entered the house.

TRY TO CLOSE BIG CURRENT DEAL

Gas Company and Street Car Officials Confer at La Crosse Club on Big Deal

A meeting was held at the La Crosse club today between officials of the La Crosse Gas and Electric company, and the La Crosse City Railway company, and A. P. Jenks, of Chicago, representing the General Electric company, for the purpose of discussing a contract whereby the gas company may furnish Hatfield current to the street railway company. The others present were Peter Valier and Henry Gund, directors of the street car company, and D. G. McMillan, P. M. Gelatt and G. Van Steenwyk, representing the gas and electric company.

Immediately after the meeting it was rumored that the contract had been closed, but inquiry from representatives of both companies and from Mr. Jenks disclosed the fact that no understanding had been reached. Another meeting will be held tomorrow.

ROLLER SKATING ALL OVER SOUTH

Chief of Police Webber, who has just returned from Birmingham, Ala., says that roller skating is one of the popular forms of amusement in all cities in the south. At the last meeting of the common council a resolution was introduced by Alderman Marvin providing that the matter of skating on the sidewalks in the business district be investigated, in view of the fact that many complaints have been entered against the practice.

SEEK SOURCE OF WATER POLLUTION

University Authorities Investigating the Cause of Germs in Madison
City Well Water

MADISON, Wis., May 19.—The new bubble fountains in the university buildings were shut off today, the drinking water for Chadbourne hall and Lathrop hall was ordered to be boiled; and fraternities, clubs and boarding houses were requested to supply boiled water, by President Charles R. Van Hise of the University of Wisconsin this morning, as a result of the report of the contamination of the Madison water supply made by Dr. M. P. Ravenel of the state hygienic laboratory.

Dr. Ravenel recommended that action as a result of the examination of five samples taken on Friday night from the suction system of the city, all of which showed the presence of dangerous pollution.

"Conditions shown by our examination for some time past have been so uniformly bad," said Dr. Ravenel, "that we feel that we are on the safe side in issuing this warning. Sewage contamination does not necessarily mean typhoid fever, but such contamination shows that something is going wrong with our water supply, and care should be taken pending the result of the investigation now being made by the state commission."

"We can not say, of course, that this water will produce typhoid fever, but the occurrence of four cases among the students, three of which almost certainly originated in the city, makes us feel that it would be wise to cut off the drinking fountains throughout the university, and to warn students generally of the desirability of having all drinking water boiled."

OUTCASTS BEAT O'DEA'S BUNCH

Three Errors and Two Hits in the Eighth Score Five Runs, Winning for La Crosse

LIZZETTE GETS A HOME RUN

Superior Catcher Knocks the Pill Over the Left Field Fence in the Fourth

The rabbit's feet were working overtime in the game yesterday and when the final count was taken after the contest La Crosse had won its fifth straight game by a score of 7 to 4. Three errors in the eighth inning by the Superiors were responsible for the Outcasts' victory. The Superior lads outbatted the locals but their field work in that one spasmodic round caused their downfall. "The lucky eighth" is the slogan of the local bugs and they are now willing to bet on eighth inning rallies.

Safford trotted out Lefty Watson to do the twirling stunt for the locals and in the opening innings the Red Legs connected viciously with the pellets that he fed them, getting six safe bingles in the first four rounds. After that "Watty" settled down to hard labor and allowed but three bingles. Currie was sent in by O'Dea to do the pill shooting business for the Red Sox and he seemed to have it on the Outcasts. He allowed three hits in the first six innings and for a time it looked as though we were never going to win. In the seventh the locals began to find him for runs.

The Superior runs were made in the second, third, fourth and ninth rounds. In the second Red McCullach scored on a hit to left field by Caldwell. In the next inning Bancroft hit a high fly to Safford, who dropped it, and later scored when Traggessor tried to catch Landry at second base. In the next inning Lizzette, who was first up picked out a nice one over the pan and as Bunny Kuehn ran up to the fence the pill shot over the boards, entitling the catcher to a home run. It was the feature of the game and one of the prettiest slams seen on the local grounds in years.

In its share of the fourth Wais, who had been passed by Currie, scored and in the seventh Safford, who had hit to center counted when Doll connected with a two base drive in the left field, the ball going up against the fence in the sun garden.

With the score 3 to 2 in favor of the visitors the fans began to clamor for the lucky eighth and sure enough they were not to be disappointed. Traggessor poled one in the left field territory and Wais slammed a high one to right field, where McGraw dropped the ball. Watson laid down a neat sacrifice along the first base line, advancing the runners a bag apiece. Connell slammed a grounder to Bancroft who errored, allowing Traggessor to count. Ward grounded to Daggett, who attempted to catch Wais at the plate but failed, the local lad sliding safe with the winning run. But that wasn't all. Three more runs came in before the inning was over. Ward stole second and Klein filed out to Daggett. Safford filed to left field where Landry dropped the pill, allowing Connell and Ward to score. Safford stole second and Doll came across with the needed pinch hit, scoring the manager. Doll stole second and Kuehn filed out to Clements.

In the ninth round, Clements hit to center and scored on a sacrifice fly by Caldwell. That was all there was to it and when the inning wound up they had counted but this lonely run and La Crosse had won its fifth straight game. The score:

LUEDKE'S CHAMPS BEAT THE SLUGGERS

A very exciting ten-inning game of baseball was played last Sunday forenoon on Powell's grounds between the Luedke's Champions and the Kabat's Sluggers, the score being 11 to 9 in favor of the Champions.

The batteries were: For the Champions, Fiebig and Hill; for the Sluggers, Balduzzi and Bausch.

A return game will be played in a few weeks, as the Sluggers were to redeem themselves and are sure they can get a victory over the

S.S.S. PURELY VEGETABLE

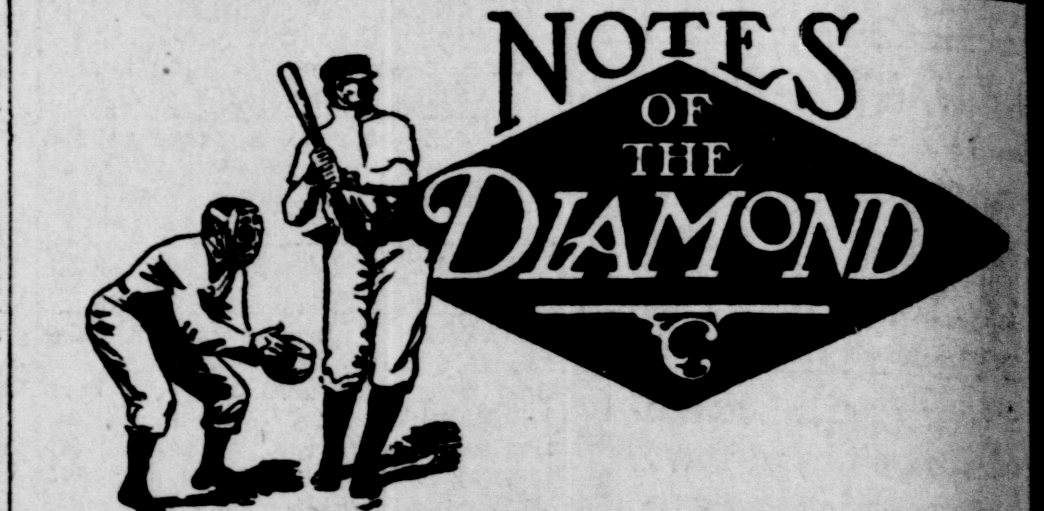

It is a generally recognized fact that medicines taken from the botanical kingdom are better adapted to the delicate human system, and safer in every way, than those composed of strong mineral mixtures. In the early settlement of this land, our forefathers were obliged to procure their medicines from Nature's great laboratories of forest and field. They searched out and compounded the different vegetable materials into teas, concoctions and medicines. That these pioneers found the most potent and valuable of the roots, herbs and barks placed at their disposal, is abundantly proven by the fact that the great majority of them were blessed with rugged health. They cured their diseases and were enabled to do the great preliminary work of civilization because the remedies they used were Nature's remedies, and specially adapted to the needs of humanity.

Among the very best of these vegetable preparations is S. S. S., a medicine made entirely of roots, herbs and barks in such combination as to make it the greatest of all blood purifiers and the finest of all tonics. S. S. S. does not contain the least particle of mineral in any form, and is absolutely safe medicine for any one to use.

While purifying the blood the great vegetable remedy builds up and strengthens every portion of the system. S. S. S. cures Rheumatism, Catarrh, Sores and Ulcers, Malaria, Scald, Skin Diseases, Contagious Poison, hereditary taints, and all other diseases and disorders caused by impure or polluted blood.

As a tonic S. S. S. is unequalled. It invigorates every portion of the system, and the healthy blood it creates largely assists in overcoming any derangement of the digestive system. If you are suffering from any blood trouble, or need a tonic to build up your constitution, you could not do better than to take S. S. S., a medicine that is in no degree harmful. Book on the blood and any medical advice free.

THE SWIFT SPECIFIC CO., ATLANTA, GA.

The number of fans at the game yesterday was a big improvement on some of the week day crowds that showed up last week.

It was fight all the way yesterday and the youngsters showed that they had not given the game up until the very last man was out in the last inning.

Wasn't that home run of Lizzette's over the left field fence a wallop. It was one of the prettiest hits ever seen on the local field. Lizzette played with the Waterloo team in the central association last year and hit at the rate of .229 for the season.

Safford's base running is getting to be a feature of the game. The manager gets a few stolen sacks at every game and when he gets to first the fans are willing to bank on it that he will reach second.

Clements' one handed jump catch of Doll's slam in the center field in the fifth inning was a feature of the game. The drive looked good for three bases and would have won the Outcast baserunner.

President Sommer of the Superior club was an interested spectator of the game yesterday.

Umps Arundel handles the game nicely and hurries them along, making the teams put up a fast and snappy class of ball.

Tomorrow is ladies' day and the fair fans should turn out to welcome Carl Bond home again with the team of Lumberjacks.
